

What is Meyerland Mothers of Young Children (MMOYC)?

MMOYC is an organization designed to bring together mothers of young children, newborn to age five, who live in Meyerland and the surrounding area, for the purpose of social interaction, support, and community service. The primary focus is on Mom, her needs, and the types of challenges she faces each day in her unique position in the family.

MMOYC Activities

This is the MMOYC Charter Year! We have events planned over the next few months, but are actively seeking input for what would be of interest to you – the members. We intend to have monthly events that will be convenient for both stay at home moms and working moms. All events are for MMOYC members only.

Social activities: MMOYC will sponsor some activities each month and members can volunteer to host or coordinate additional events. All active members receive a monthly calendar and newsletter announcing upcoming events. Our activities could include (but are not limited to):

- Daytime playdates at members’ homes or local parks
- Mom’s Night Out – Dinner or fun activity for moms only
- Weekday or Weekend activities at fun kid friendly places around town.

Playgroups: Playgroups are a great way to meet other moms with children the same age as yours. By joining, you will meet other members with children and can begin to form your own groups. Playgroups operate independently of MMOYC and meet on a schedule of your choosing, by either rotating through the members’ homes or making occasional field trips together.
